

Long and short blurbs;
-Medieval Swordplay

Battle with or against your friends and family using professional padded boffer gear, including swords, shields, spears, arrows, and more!

Battle with or against your friends and family using fully padded and safety tested boffer gear! The Wandering Swordsmen provide professional gear and instruction for how to play one of the newest and fastest growing sports in the country, known by many names but generally called boffing. All kinds of different gear are provided including swords, shields, spears, and arrows, and many different games will be played including capture the flag, monarch battles, and tournaments! There will be battles for kids and also for adults only. Check out thewanderingswordsmen.com for more info.